

Year 6 Unit 7

FLASHCARDS

accordion

A musical instrument that you squeeze together and pull apart. It has lots of buttons and keys to press to make music.

accordion

classical music

A type of music that's been around for a long time, often played by a big group of musicians with instruments like violins and pianos.

folk music

Music that comes from the traditions of a country or community. It's often played with guitars and tells stories about everyday life.

perform

To show off a talent, like singing, dancing or acting, usually in front of an audience.

pop music

A popular kind of music that lots of people like, usually with catchy tunes and easy-to-remember words.

promote

To help something become more popular, like telling lots of people about a new song or a concert.

rap

A type of music where words are spoken quickly and rhythmically over a beat, instead of being sung.

rhythm

The beat that you
tap your feet to in a song.

tour

When singers or bands travel to different places to perform their music.

tune

A melody or a series of notes in music that are easy to remember.

possible

When something can be done or achieved. It means that it could happen or be true.

impossible

The opposite of possible. It means something cannot be done or achieved, no matter how hard someone tries.

agree

When you have the same opinion as someone else or you say 'yes' to an idea or suggestion.

disagree

The opposite of agree. It's when you have a different opinion from someone else or you say 'no' to an idea or suggestion.

honest

When someone tells the truth and doesn't lie or cheat. It's about being truthful and fair.

dishonest

The opposite of being honest. It means not telling the truth, lying or cheating.

polite

Showing good manners and respect towards others. It's about being kind and considerate in how you act and speak.

impolite

Not showing good manners. It means being rude or disrespectful in your behaviour or speech.

perfect

When something is completely without any mistakes or flaws. It's as good as it can possibly be.

imperfect

The opposite of perfect. It means having mistakes or flaws, not being completely perfect.

appear

To come into view or become visible. It's like showing up or being seen.

disappear

The opposite of appear. It means to go out of view or become invisible, like vanishing.

mature

When someone behaves in a grown-up way, showing good judgement and responsibility. It's about being sensible and not childish.

immature

The opposite of mature. It means behaving in a childish or silly way, not acting like a grown-up.

respect

Showing consideration and appreciation towards others. It's about treating people, their feelings, and their things in a thoughtful and kind way.

disrespect

The opposite of respect. It means not showing consideration or appreciation, often behaving rudely or offensively towards others.

calendar

midnight

The middle of the night, exactly 12
o'clock at night.

midnight

orchestra

A large group of musicians who play different instruments together, like in a big concert hall.

orchestra

rehearsal

Practicing for a performance, like a play or a concert, before the actual event.

a musical

A play or movie
where characters
sing songs as part of the story.

traditional music

Music that has been passed down through generations, often representing a particular country or culture.

catchy

A tune or song
that's easy to remember and
makes you want to sing along.

cheerful

Music or sounds
that are happy and make you feel good.

lively

Music that is full of energy and makes you want to move or dance.

optimistic

Music that sounds
hopeful and positive.

romantic

Music or movies that are about love
and feelings.

romantic film

A movie about
love stories,
usually with
happy endings.

action film

A movie with lots of exciting
scenes, like
chases, fights
and adventures.

comedy

A film or show
that's funny
and makes you laugh.

horror film

A scary movie
that's meant to frighten and surprise you.